HOW TO APPLY ?

1. Individual participation (3 months)

payment by the student

2. University partnership (soon)

payment by the faculty or school

3. Work-study application (1 year)

payment by the employer

1. INDIVIDUAL APPLICATION

All costs are the responsibility of the participant (training cost + additional accommodations costs...)

Advantages

- application/file is immediate
- possibility of paying for the training in 4 installments

2. UNIVERSITY PARTNERSHIP APPLICATION

A student is sponsored by his faculty/school
(File validation by the faculty required)

Advantages

- training paid (only the additional costs are the responsibility of the student : accommodation, meals, subway...)
- visibility of the faculty by the research paper
- the student becomes an ambassador of his faculty through his research subject at the United Nations

3. WORK STUDY APPLICATION

Participant profile:

- student in gap year (1 year available)
- student looking for an end-of-studies internship
The student validates his internship with the start of his work-study program and he finalizes it as a young graduate.
(does not issue an internship agreement)
- young graduate
Perfect experience to offer a first step into the world of work by combining experience at the UN.

This work-study program differs from the traditional work-study program offered by the higher education establishment through an apprenticeship contract as part of the initial training offered by the establishment.

Here the training organization which concludes the work-study program is ICC with a professionalization contract to follow the InspireChange professional training in parallel or in addition to the initial studies.
